Home Funeral Movement?

Come to the Bay Area Funeral Society's free screening of

A Family Undertaking

This documentary explores the home funeral movement by following several families in their most intimate moments as they reclaim the end of life by foregoing a typical mortuary funeral to care for their loved ones at home. The movie is 56 mins and will be followed by a 30min presentation on how to arrange a home funeral.

When: Saturday, June 12, 2010. 2:30-4pm

Where: The Berkeley Public Library (Claremont Branch),
2940 Benvenue Ave (at Ashby)
Berkeley, CA 94705

This event is sponsored by the Bay Area Funeral Society (BAFS). BAFS is a non-profit organization that educates consumers about their burial and cremation options. We provide information about traditional, economical, green, and/or home funerals.
